Open rates to South Africa have been declared by members of the conference operating in that trade, the Shipping Board concurring. Rate cutting of 10 to 20 per cent, under conference levels by the United States Navigation Company led to the declaration of open rates. Henry Hof leased the store in III East Thirty-fourth street to the Berger Valet and Tailoring Company; also in 232 East Forty-first street, to John S. Farrington, and to A. Velmont Sallada and Samuei B. Grimson, the store in 165 East Thirty-seventh street.

on the arrival of the Mallory liner San Jacinto last Saturday off Miami, after a three day trip from New York, H. 11. Raymond, president, and other officials of the company went ashore in a tender to test out the possibilities of landing passengers at the Florida resort in that manner until the channel has been deepended sufficiently to permit the ship to berth alongside her pier, according to advices received here by the line. The landing was made without difficulty. The indications are that for the first time Miami will be included in the direct New York passenger service of the Mallory Line.
